Library of Virginia to bring new state-of-the-art mobile programming van to Central Rappahannock Regional Library, Fredericksburg Branch

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA - The Library of Virginia will bring its new state-of-the-art van, LVA On the Go, to Central Rappahannock Regional Library, Fredericksburg Branch, 1201 Caroline St., Fredericksburg, on Saturday, Oct. 7 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

LVA On the Go, which debuted in the spring as part of the Library's yearlong 200th anniversary celebration, is bringing some of the Library's vast resources, staff expertise and programming to every corner of the commonwealth. The statewide tour is designed to enhance awareness of the Library's collections and resources, strengthen ties to local organizations, capture stories and histories from community members and provide a memorable and fun experience.

"As we approach our third century, it's important that we offer additional ways for individuals of all ages who may not ever have the opportunity to visit us in Richmond to learn about our rich and diverse collections and programs and share their stories," said Librarian of Virginia Sandra Treadway. "Our custom-built vehicle presents opportunities to connect to a wider audience across the state."

Attendees at the Central Rappahannock Regional Library event can explore research resources, register for a Library card, discuss regional and family history, discover educational materials and enjoy children's activities. There will also be Library staff presentations and activities as follows:

- 10:30 a.m. – Storytime
- 11:00 a.m. – LVA Genealogy 101
- 11:30 a.m. – Virginia Untold: The African American Narrative
- 12:30 p.m. – LVA Newspaper Research
- 1:00 p.m. – Local Records: Lost and Found
